

Hilton Brisbane's $13 Million Reinvention...

For 25 years the Hilton Brisbane has anticipated the city's rise as a dynamic, regional hub of business, arts, fashion and tourism, as it evolved into a confident and connected state capital.

Since opening in 1986, the Hilton Brisbane has been a quietly enduring champion of luxury and service, representing one of the world's most recognised and trusted leisure and hospitality brands.

Unique as the only hotel to have been designed by one of the founders of modernist design in Australia, Harry Seidler, the Hilton Brisbane expresses a harmony of form, function and technology that sets the benchmark in its style.

Demonstrating a renewed focus on the hotel's original vision for contemporary design and unpretentious luxury, the Hilton Brisbane in late 2011 will emerge from extensive refurbishments to become Brisbane's most up-to-the-moment five star hotel.

Locals and visitors alike will be enticed to enter the revitalised Hilton Brisbane through the work of acclaimed designer Mark Landini, creating a new porte cochere and the stunningly reimagined Atrium Grill, as well as an ultra-modern business centre and flexible-use meeting rooms.

Our selection of revitalised rooms and suites feature an atmosphere of enviable calm and sophistication illuminated by natural light from expansive windows overlooking a buzzing city centre, only a step away from the selection of soulful temptations with which to unwind and recharge.

When you stay with the Hilton Brisbane you'll be at the heart of a vibrant metropolis with all the choice and excitement of a big city, and the friendly, down to earth attitude of a small. We look forward to welcoming you to experience our revitalized hotel in September 2011.
